‘Thy Kingdom Come’ Prayer Diary Thursday 30th May – Sunday 9th June 2019

“In praying ‘Thy Kingdom Come’ we all commit to playing our part in the renewal of the nations and the transformation of communities.”
 Archbishop Justin Welby.

My Family (write their names here)

My Friends and Neighbours (write their names here)

At the beginning of each day

Father in Heaven, may your Kingdom come in the lives of my family.
(Name them before God.)
 You know their hopes and dreams, their hurts and disappointments.
 Meet each of them in their need this day I pray, according to your infinite wisdom, mercy and grace, and may they all come to know Jesus Christ as their Lord, Saviour and friend. Amen.

At the end of each day

Father in Heaven, may your Kingdom come in the lives of my friends and neighbours.
(Name them before God.)
 You know what joys and disappointments they have encountered today.
 Give them opportunity to encounter Jesus, to turn to him, and be found in him, to live for him and may your kingdom come in their lives. Amen.

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people – for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Saviour, who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all. (1 Timothy 2:1-6)
