"In praying 'Thy Kingdom Come' we all commit to playing our part in the renewal of the nations and the transformation of communities."

Archbishop Justin Welby.

Praying for my Family (write their names here)

Praying for my Friends and Neighbours (write their names here)

At the beginning and end of each day

Father in Heaven, may your Kingdom come in the lives of my family (morning), friends and neighbours (evening) (Name them before God.)
 You know their hopes and dreams, their hurts and disappointments.
 Meet each of them in their need I pray, according to your infinite wisdom, mercy and grace. May they all come to know Jesus Christ as their Lord, Saviour and friend. Amen.

At the end of each day, a prayer for our times

Merciful Father, during this difficult and strange time; we pray for the sick and all who care for them; for all who are helping to keep us safe; for all who are keeping the country running; for all who are anxious about jobs and money or for any other reason; for all relationships that are strained and for our leaders in Government. And we pray for all whose earthly lives are coming to an end. Lord have mercy upon us and let our ultimate trust be in You. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.

I urge, then, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercession and thanksgiving be made for all people – for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness. This is good, and pleases God our Saviour, who wants all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth. For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus, who gave himself as a ransom for all. (1 Timothy 2:1-6)
